I'm Going to Miss Them

You know, it's a funny thing about being a priest: your relationships are always changing. I've been ordained for 16 years, lived in four different rectories, had seven different assignments, and have directly ministered to thousands of people. A unique cross of the priesthood is the number of relationships which we form...and then move on from. And every place I have been has left finger prints on my heart and albums of memories in my soul.

But being Pastor of St. Francis is the first time that I am not the one moving: Fr. Josh and Fr. Dan are moving on. And, again, my relationships are changing. While, I am excited for Fr. Andrew Walsh and Fr. Andrew Labenz to arrive, I am sad to lose these two great priests. And, not only great priests, great brothers.

Fr. Dan, you have been a joy to have with us. You are passionate and compassionate. Your homilies are engaging and your words are spirit filled. You are dedicated to the people of St. Francis and have invested yourself in this parish family. You have been such an incredible support to me. You were able to apply your six years of experience to your pastoral ministry. You took independent control of several projects and you will be leaving new ministries behind such as the Master Server's program and a new format for baptismal prep. For this and for more, Fr. Dan, thank you. Keep workin' on that Easter Alleluia!

And Fr. Josh, we are seriously going to miss you. You were able to "cut your teeth" on our parish. I can tell you from experience... your first parish will always irreplaceably form your priesthood. What a joy it was for me to serve with you! Who would have thought that a young 8th grader in my first assignment was going to be my first associate pastor! You are filled with explosive power. You took to heart every part of your pastoral ministry. You have an incisive wit, a courageous spirit, and a radiant personality. Your homilies were always well-planned, well-thought out and spiritually enriching. You served the youth with passion, were dedicated to the PSR program and tackled the RCIA program with intentionality. As much as a priest's first assignment irreplaceably forms a priest, a pastor's first associate irreplaceably forms a pastor. You've had to be my back up for my studies, weather my decisions as I got my "pastor feet" underneath me, and put up with my habits in the house. I could not be more proud to have you as my first associate. Be easy on those doors!

I am going to miss you guys. We, the entire parish of St. Francis, are going to miss you guys. You have left your fingerprints on our hearts and we will rejoice every time we recall one of the thousands of memories we have in our mental (and literal) albums.

God's speed on your next ministries!

“STEWARDED OUR GIFTS: GO IN PEACE, GLORIFYING THE LORD BY YOUR LIFE”

“Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.” Throughout today’s Gospel, Jesus repeats that He is the Bread of Life and that we must EAT His flesh and DRINK His blood in order to gain eternal life. He has made himself quite clear – there is no misunderstanding of what has to happen, but clearly the Jews are disturbed at His instruction. Not only is his mandate unconventional, but drinking blood was actually grounds for banishment from the tribe. And this is the point, not only for the Jews and the early Christians, but also for you and I. Will you leave behind your old life and join a much greater “tribe”? Will you literally partake in the body and blood of Jesus Christ? Will you take your place in His church, amongst the more figurative body of Christ, using your life to glorify Him? The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our faith. Without it, we are no better than the Israelites who wandered in the desert.

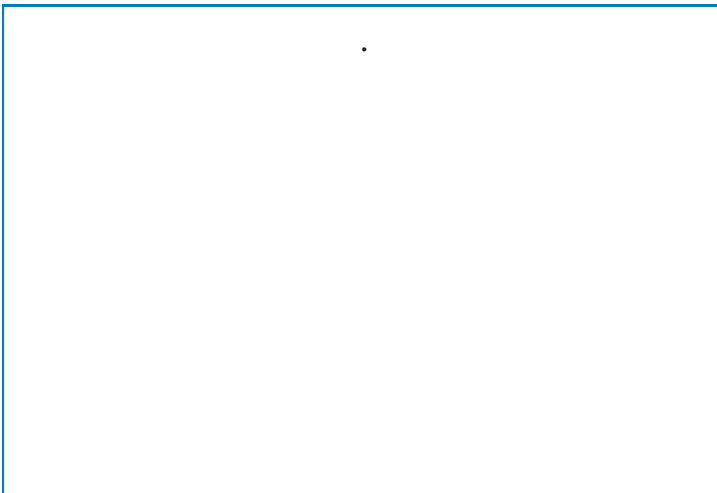

A gathering for all young adults, single or married, ages 22 – 35 to come together for an evening of faith and friendship. Our next gathering will be Thursday, June 22 at the Rectory from 7:00-10:00 pm. The evening consists of a presentation, discussion and social time. You are welcome to come for all or part of the evening. Non-parishioners are welcome. Spouses older than 35 are welcome. Feel free to bring nonalcoholic drinks or snacks as you wish. Daycare will be provided, please call or text Sarah Steinert at 316-613-9507 or email steinertcs@gmail.com to sign up your children.

THANK YOU FROM RCIA

RCIA HAS A NEED FOR YOUNG SPONSORS

Our summer RCIA session has begun! This session brought in a much younger audience than usual. When we pair sponsors with those seeking to join the faith, we try to do so first based on age and gender, then on similar life circumstances. We are in need of parishioners between the ages of 20-30, both male and female to be sponsors. We meet each Wednesday from 6:30-8:00 pm. We provide childcare and food and drinks. This is a great opportunity to share our beautiful faith with those seeking it out. You do not need to know "everything" about the Church, but be a welcoming face for those interested in entering our faith. Please contact Jeremy and Melissa Lezniak at jm.lezniak@gmail.com for more information or if you are interested. Thank you!
