

Formation Leaders:

Mandie DeVries

Mandie DeVries began her journey with CGS in 2004, and served for 13 years first as a catechist and then Director of Religious Education at All Saints Catholic Church in Des Moines, Iowa where 43 trained catechists and 27 other volunteers served 200+ children ages 0-12 each week using Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. She and her husband Matt, who is also a trained CGS catechist, homeschool their 6 children. She is trained in all three levels of CGS, as well as receiving certification in Seminal Infant Toddler Formation in March of 2018, and is currently pursuing her Masters in Theology from St. Meinrad in southern Indiana. She strives each day to turn and become like a little child, so as to enter the Kingdom (cf Matt 18:3). In her blogs "Family Fiat", "Faith Formation Begins at Home", and "Forever In Formation" she writes of the adventures in CGS and her family. In September 2015, she was recognized as a CGS Level I Formation Leader by the National Association of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

Maureen Stone

Maureen Stone fell in love with Catechesis of the Good Shepherd in 2003 when she attended the first Level I course held in Iowa. Maureen has been trained in all three levels of the Catechesis and serves as a coordinator of CGS at her parish, St. Thomas Aquinas in Indianola, Iowa. Her husband, Kelly, will be ordained to the permanent diaconate in August of this year.

Lynn Marsh

Lynn Marsh, a Wichita native, came to Catechesis of the Good Shepherd after being invited to help with a materials making workshop and never left. She experiences the whole world as an atrium and brings her contemplative spirit to her work with the children. A gifted artist and teacher, Lynn makes building an atrium a prayerful and creative experience for course participants. Her wood-burned cenacle sets are now available for purchase at cgsusa.org!

St. Francis reserves the right to discontinue the course if the minimum enrollment of 18 participants is not met by the registration deadline. In this case, all tuition will be refunded to the registered participants.
